For the Service - -

This book is dedicated to the young men and women from East High School who are so gallantly carrying the banner of democracy in this world-wide struggle. They go forth with true East High spirit to uphold our motto, "For the Service of Humanity".

In Training

Within East High we receive the training that will help us go into the world prepared to live profitable, well-ordered lives. Guidance is given to us in both our studies and our social life so that we may become well-adjusted and useful citizens.

Home of Learning

There East High School stands, the beautiful, inspiring, satisfying home of learning for thousands of boys and girls who have proudly acclaimed their loyalty to the old school.

The massive columns of the front portico, the stone steps to the entrance, the great doors have been witnesses to the steady flow of generations of East High students.

From the time the building was only a child in the brain of the late May Goodrell to the present time, East High has been a contributing factor to city, state, nation, and world. Men and women have gone forth to gain high repute in the professions, in politics, in industry, and in business.

In this time of world-wide strife hundreds of boys and men from East High are fighting and dying for the ideals which East High has always upheld. With true East High spirit and loyalty they are doing their duty.

From this classic edifice will go out many 1943 graduates who will enter into the world struggle to do or die. In their hearts the picture of the building itself will enshrine memories of their school days.

Vice-Principal

FACULTY

To our fine faculty goes much of the credit for the reputation East High has for praiseworthy achievement in many various fields. Honesty, perseverance, initiative, tolerance and many other desirable traits are imbedded in our minds by the ardent efforts of our zealous instructors.

Our hard-working girls' adviser, Miss Agnes Helmreich, is responsible for watching over the young women of our student body. She also supervises much of the work in the student council and is behind the scenes in most of our all-school parties and senior activities.

Mr. D. Q. Williams is the friendly guide and counselor of the boys in East High, always ready and willing to help them do their best in any kind of work.

The principal of the school, Mr. O. G. Prichard, is the man who keeps the whole school running smoothly as one unit.

Our books and school would be of little value without the teachers to guide and direct us and help us get the most out of all that we study. Our thanks to them for all that they have made our school.

There was a young fellow named Billy,
He acted so terribly silly—sometimes—
His folks lost all hope
In this poor little dope
Named Billy.—Smith—?

Also in our class
Was a cute little lass.
She's really keen,
Yes, she was our queen.
Her initials are: B. R. Hi, Betty!

She's short, she's sweet, she's heavenly,
Her fellow's name is Bob;
Her name is Beverly.
They're a sharp little couple,
Oh, me, now what will rhyme with that?

What about Alice, Liz, and Johansen?
And that Brayman lad is really handsome!
Ah, yes. All the class are really tops.
You can bet your "shoe coupon"
They'll never be flops.

Now Rider, our editor, is really o. k.
An all around good fellow—what more can I say?
If he knew about these so-called verses,
He might be "thinking" of some turrible curses.
Like, "Heavens"!

May Festival

Another year has come and gone, and May is here again. May—a joyous and beautiful month of flowers and trees and birds—a month when all nature seems to waken with a pleasant smile on her face.

It is at this time that East High holds its traditional May Festival. Each year a king, kueen, and fourteen attendants are chosen from the senior class to reign over this gala affair.

This semester after the crowning of the lovely queen by the handsome king, we were uniquely entertained by a group from Grand View College, who demonstrated the colorful Danish folk dances.

The festival was efficiently planned by the Senior Festival committee under the supervision of Miss Agnes Helmreich, and the student chairman, Dorothy Steffens.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

The last semester at East High is always packed with fun and frenzy, and this semester was no exception. After having taken on the responsibility of getting passing grades in all their subjects, the seniors decided to participate in various other activities.

The first senior meeting was held amidst greetings to every one, exclamations of surprise at the size of the class, and wondering if they were really going to graduate, at last.

Among the first senior get-togethers was the ever popular "Farmer-Farmerette" party.

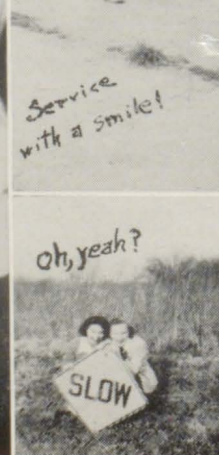

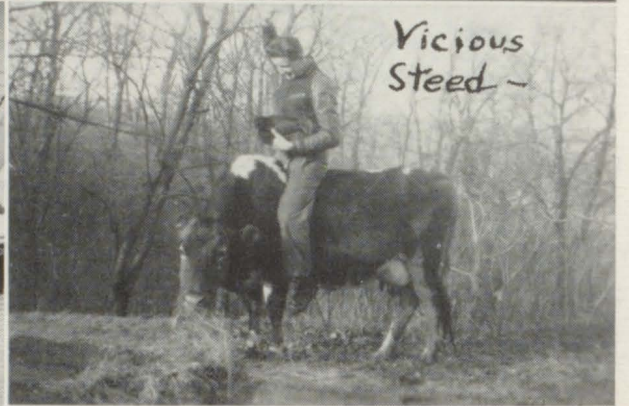

The farmer theme was carried out very nicely in the costumes, decorations and amusements, with costumes ranging from silk to gunny sack—decorations—consisting mostly of hay—amusements were square dancing done to genuine hill-billy music by the dance band.

Everyone was invited to the All-School Play, "Come Out of the Kitchen", but the seniors especially were invited, since it would be their last opportunity to see a school play while still attending East High. It was another fine production and provided good entertainment for all who came.

Student Council

By John Dawson

Those who understand call it the backbone of the school, and those who don't, soon find out. Every person on the student council is selected to serve by his or her home room. Any school activity that requires the cooperation of the students is promoted by the coordinated support of the council representatives. The many and varied drives conducted in a semester are carried out with one or more of the various student council committees "at the wheel". The semester play is promoted and tickets sold to students through the council. Student opinions are brought into focus and discussed at meetings. Every point is given complete consideration and voted upon. By this system, the wishes of the student body are given careful scrutiny. The student council cooperates, whole heartedly, with the clubs and other organization. Especially in this war-time semester, when the Victory corps has become a major influence in our school life, has the council done its utmost for the advancement of harmony in the organization. Much of the council's success is due to the guidance of Miss Agnes Helmreich, an understanding and worthy adviser for such a vital and necessary school institution. Now you see why they call them the "backbone of the school". They are actually the heart of the whole student body!

Quill Staff

The Quill, East High's yearbook or annual, is published bi-annually, not only as a memory book for the seniors, but for the underclassmen as well. The book, if kept by the students, may, sometime in the future, recall old schoolhood acquaintances and sweethearts. Many seniors have kept Quills for all six semesters they have attended East High.

The staff that writes the Quill is selected from the twelfth grade English students who have been recommended by the English instructors.

The staff this year is headed by Richard Rider, editor-in-chief, and Elaine Wallin, associate editor. The division editors are: Helen Fraley, senior editor; Roger Ashton, organizations editor; George Lamb, sports editor; and La Verne Stewart, jokes and calendar editor. The other members of the staff are Jack Fraley, Peggy State, Eddie Carr, Dorothy McClelland, Jim Terrell, and Elizabeth Holden. Von Ellen Craft and Phyllis Graven-gaard are the typists for this year's Quill. Paul Kiser and Elton Mann are the photographers.

The faculty committee consists of Mr. Kenneth Stratton, who is in charge of the editorial staff; Mr. Leslie Olson, in charge of the business staff; Miss Harriet Macy, who supervises the art staff; and Mr. Charles Springate, who handles the adver-tising staff.

In spite of this year's small staff, they were able to meet the deadline on time. There is probably no other room as busy as 218 before Quill deadline.

Scroll Advisers

Behind every successful school newspaper lies the guidance and understanding of the faculty advisers. Here at East High School we are very fortunate in having three qualified supervisors of our school publication, "The Scroll".

Heading the editorial part of the Scroll is likeable, Mr. Kenneth Stratton; the finance department is well taken care of by M. Leslie Olsen; and the art department is cared for by the artistic Miss Harriet Macy.

For 13 years Mr. Stratton has been the editorial adviser for the Scroll. Mr. Stratton spends much of his spare time working on the paper.

The difficult problem of handling the finances of the Scroll confronts Mr. Leslie Olsen, but having a very thorough knowledge of finance, Mr. Olsen has little trouble in solving these trying problems.

Miss Harriet Macy does a very efficient job of handling the cartoons and all those clever little drawings in the Scroll.

Scroll Staff

Containing well written stories of school news, assemblies, parties, gossip, and news of service men and alumni, the East High Scroll is considered one of the best school newspapers in the country.

The Scroll staff is made up of students who are taking Journalism II. Although the 5th period is the class period devoted to work on the Scroll, the students and teachers spend much of their spare time planning and writing stories for the newspaper.

This semester the subscription campaign went "over the top" with more than 90% of the students purchasing the paper.

Clerical Staff

The student rushes breathlessly into the office, and asks the girl behind the counter, "Has my notebook been turned in?" or "Is there a blue fountain pen in the lost and found?"

Many questions (some foolish) like these are answered every day by the service girls in the office.

In addition to answering queries, the girls collect absence slips, take around special announcements to the classrooms, type, take dictation, and file. These students work in the offices of the principal, girls' and boys' advisers, nurse, and school registrar.

Students chosen for the clerical staff should be taking business and commercial courses, and should be able to take dictation and type.

Library Staff

The library assistants perform an invaluable service to the students of East High by helping them find material in the library.

Staff members, chosen from among those students who apply for a library position, are preferably underclassmen because it doesn't pay to train a senior for the amount of time he will remain in school.

In addition to finding reference material, the students check out books, see that books are returned on time, shelve books, and read the shelves to see that the books are in their proper classification.

The boys in the bookroom are also members of the staff, which is under the direction of Miss Carrie Larson, school librarian.

The Play's the Thing

Rental of their southern plantation for six weeks to a rich northerner brings a load of trouble and fun to a financially embarrassed group of children of a southern family in the all-school play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," which was presented in the school auditorium, April 9, at 8:00.

The cast for the play, directed by Mrs. Jaunita Laser, included Shirley Chinn, as Olivia Dangerfield; Violet Glover, as Elizabeth Dangerfield; Norma McPherson, as Mrs. Falkener; Elita Young, as Cora Falkener; Betty Ross, as Amanda; Robert Eisenlauer, as Paul Dangerfield; James Shephard, as Charles Dangerfield; Jack Coffey, as Randolph Weeks; Bill Perkins, as the Statistical Poet; and Charles Ladd as Crane's attorney.

Behind every successful play are those who do not make their appearance to the public but nevertheless are vital to the success of the production. The student committees are: Student Assistants, Violet Glover and Beatrice Miller; Lights, Gene Faust, Don Jones, R. M. Travis, James Richards and Roy Dwyer. The Properties committee was Marjorie Rowat, Maxyne Molyneux, Bonnie Campbell, Ruth Williams, and Wesley Heritage. The Make-up committee included Patricia Halligan, Marilyn Waller, Betty Dixon, and Gretchen Sawson.

Swing Band

Probably one of the most popular and most enjoyable organizations in East High School is our dance band. The band, as some of our "hepcats" would say "is really on the beam", or as others would say "strictly solid".

However, those who most enjoy soft, sweet numbers find the band just as pleasing as those who enjoy swing music. Most of the social events of the school would be almost failures without the band.

Leading the band this semester is Jerry Fellman, who also plays the trombone. The members of the band are Bob Townsend and Jerry Fellman, trombone; Bob Barman, Morton Levitt, and Bill Shaphren, saxophone; Jack Fraley, Jack Rhoads, and John Baker, trumpet; Bob Sturdevant, drums; Bill Carter, piano; and LaVerne Stewart, guitar.

Wardrobe Girls

We who sit out in front enjoying a performance never consider the work that goes on unseen but that is of the utmost importance for a finished production. Among the unsung heroes in this category are the wardrobe girls, who work long hours under the direction of Miss Stella Hargis. Miss Hargis, one of our history teachers, spends much of her spare time helping the girls in the costume room.

Margaret Smith has spent all her spare time this semester in getting the costumes in order. Working along with Margaret are Ann Gallagher, Bonnie Paul, Rosemary Kurie, and Deloras Noland.

Ten new WAAC costumes and several "Gay Nineties" costumes were some of the very unique costumes added to the already full costume room this semester.

Wardrobe girls see that the many costumes which are used in school activities are catalogued and filed away so that they may be obtained on short notice.

Band

The Concert Band under the direction of Mr. John McWhirter has played at several assemblies, at the spring concert, at various assemblies in other schools, and at several bond rallies.

This year there are 83 members in the band. Besides the concert band Mr. McWhirter also has the marching band. A new method of rehearsing has been developed this year which seems quite successful.

Orchestra

Under the direction of Mr. John McWhirter is the East High orchestra, which consists of about 50 players.

The orchestra has made its usual appearances this semester by playing for the school play, spring festival, and commencement exercises.

A special string ensemble consisting of Kenneth Ried, Lloyd Speck, Wendell Southard, and Irvin Scott, violins, and Glenna Groseclose, piano, has given many programs this semester.

Glee Clubs and Choir

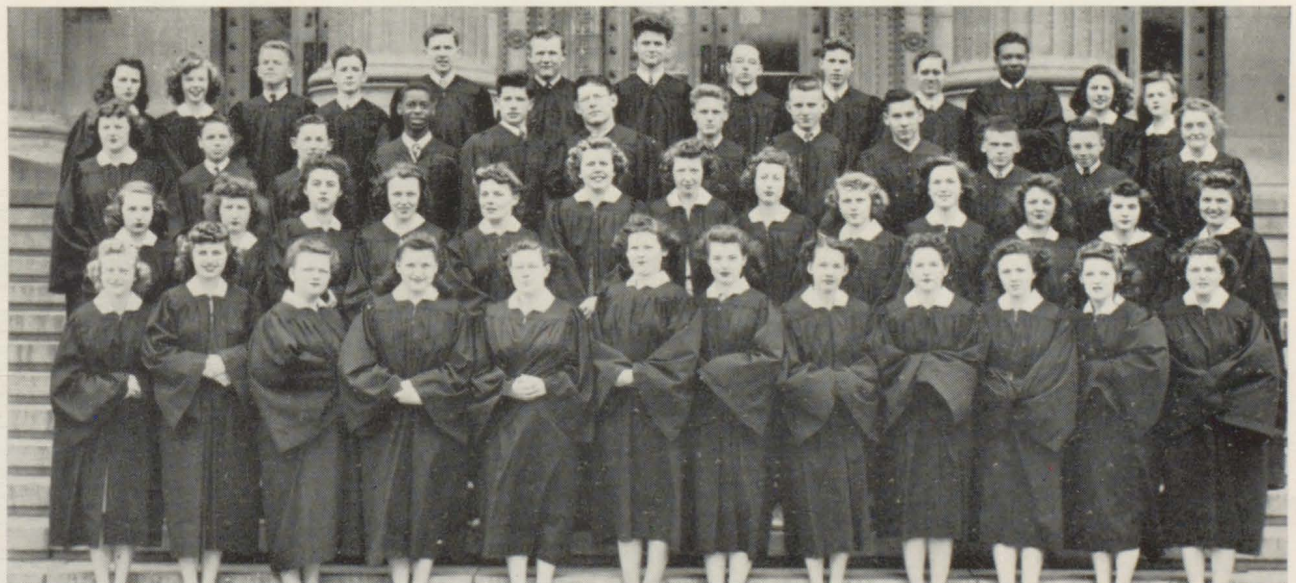

These three groups, which are under the direction of Miss Sigrid Greenhill, provide a good deal of our musical entertainment at East. They also give programs at other high and junior high schools of the city.

The Choir, which contains the members of the glee clubs, is the most advanced of our musical clubs. During each semester this group takes part in various musical programs, both inside and outside our school. One of the most interesting is the Christmas Pageant.

The Boys' Glee Club is reputed to be one of the finest in Des Moines. It provides an excellent opportunity for those fellows who are interested in good music to express their talent.

The Girls' Glee Club of East is another of our very much advanced musical groups. They take part in various assemblies and sing carols in East High's annual Christmas Pageant.

Hall Monitors

If East High had a throne, the hall monitors might be called the "power behind the throne"; if East High were a political machine, the hall monitors might be called the "ward-healers".

But, speaking seriously, the hall monitors do play an important, if seemingly dull, part in the school organization. Also, when you consider it, they have a tough job. You know yourself that when youngsters reach high school, they feel pretty important and are apt to be a bit unruly. So, you need students who are tactful but firm.

To insure getting the best students for the positions, a new system of choosing monitors has been instituted this semester. A teacher sends in his list of students, the boys to Mr. Williams, the girls to Miss Helmreich, for approval on the basis of dependability and scholastic ability. They check the ones they think are best fit for the job, and out of those checked are chosen the monitors.

Row 2: Smith, Moreland, Benshoof.

Quill Ad Staff

The Quill Ad staff, under the direction of Mr. Charles Springate, is made up mostly of students from his salesmanship classes. A few of them are from the merchandising classes.

The students work hard, and at the end of each week, the one who has sold the most for that week receives, as a reward, a "plum" or, in other words, a sure ad.

Each student has a list of prospects and no one else may try to sell that prospect. A chart is kept on the board to show the progress of the classes and individuals.

Before-School Monitors

These students willingly give up an hour or so of sleep in the mornings in order to police the halls of our beloved school. They are vitally important in keeping order before school. They keep papers off the floor. Their main duty is to keep the halls clear of unauthorized students who pass their post. They check the slip which the student must carry and send him on his way. We should show more appreciation for their work and try to help them.

Row 1: Thomas, McKay, Pearson, Schuling, Darrah, Fenner; Row 2: Clow, Herman, Swertfager, Graham, Everhart, Mr. Springate; Row 3: DePhillips, Simmons, Wells, Gillham, Givant, Henning, Cunningham.

Row 1: Clemens, Snider, Fust, Bates, McKae;
Row 2: Dennis, Newbrough, Gaar, Ozanne, Tallman, Pienick.

Movie Staffs

Working in the auditorium during the noon movie are the movie monitors whose business is to keep the students quiet. These students take third hour study hall, and are excused from it and gym to serve as monitors. Up in the projection booth are the hard-working, sweating movie operators who handle the technical end of presenting the movies.

Row 1: Fenner, Davidson, Greene;
Row 2: Roberts, English, Sargent, Vass.

Candy, Movie Salesmen

You've heard of the cage monkeys in the gym. We have some "cage monkeys" in the front hall in the persons of the movie ticket sellers. With the girls who take tickets at the auditorium doors, they handle the business end of the noon movie.

Working behind the candy counter in the front hall, the candy sellers help make life more pleasant at East High.

Stagehands, Electricians

If you were in the auditorium before school on an assembly day, you would see the electricians and stagehands rushing about madly, hooking up the p.a. system and "mikes", shifting chairs, and arranging the stage for the morning program.

These "behind the scenes" workers also help with the Extravaganza, the school play, and various other school activities that necessitate their services.

The boys are under the direction of Mr. Alvin G. Hostetter.

Row 1: Fenton, McClintic, Burrows, Richards, Jones, Faust;

Chess Club

The reason many boys are reluctant to join the Chess Club is that they think the game is too complicated or too hard to learn. Mr. J. A. Seevers, club sponsor, says that "the boy who possesses the most common sense wins the most games."

The club's activities are culminated in a contest to decide the champion chess-player of the school. The members also play checkers but chess is the game, played most often.

Sitting Down: Beyarno, Watkins, May, Boston.

Standing Up: Smith, Plum, Keller.

Arts and Crafts

The purpose of the Arts and Crafts club is to give students a chance to develop a craft and work with their hands.

The members make rings, bracelets, and other beautifully hand-wrought jewelry out of metal, and various trinkets out of wood.

Considering that doctors have told patients to take up a craft to soothe frazzled war-nerves, this club should be a very useful organization.

Row 1: Hockmuth, Hussey, Herman, Burnett; Row 2: Patterson, Peterson, Wiley, Bentley; Row 3: Macy, Peterson, McNeley, Peterson, Patterson, Plum.

Brush and Palette

Brush and Palette was organized to carry on various art projects and, generally, to instil and appreciation of art in students.

The club is more concerned with pure art than with handicraft. The members study composition and color.

The club is under the sponsorship of Miss Harriet Macy, East High art instructor.

VICTORY

General

The General division of the Victory corps is the largest division, with over one hundred members. They completed a survey of student war aid plans for the summer of 1943. This group also helped in food rationing and bond selling. This division is composed mostly of tenth graders since they are not eligible for any of the special divisions. Dortha Tucker is the secretary. Miss Grace McEniry is the adviser.

Air

The Air division of the Victory corps promoted the "Buy a Jeep Bond Drive" during the week of April 12 to 20 with the cooperation of the student council. The drive brought in $13,450.00 in bonds and $3,412.65 in stamps, making a total of $16,862.65. This amount would purchase the equivalent of about 18 Jeeps. Vance Walters is the chairman, and Mr. Kenneth Stratton is the adviser of the group.

Land

The Land division of the Victory corps is small, with only about twenty members, but it has done much to further the war effort, in spite of its size. The members have helped in rationing, bond selling, and in tabulating the names of East High boys in the service for its service plaque in the front hall. James Williams is the student representative, and Patricia Meier is the secretary. Mr. William Hammond is the adviser.

CORPS

Sea

The Sea division of the Victory corps is one of the smaller groups. It is under the direction of the swimming coach, "Scotty" Russell. In order to become a member of the Sea division one must be participating in a physical fitness program and be pursuing a course in high school mathematics. The prospective member must also be pursuing a high school course which could be helpful to the war effort such as laboratory science, shop, or navigation.

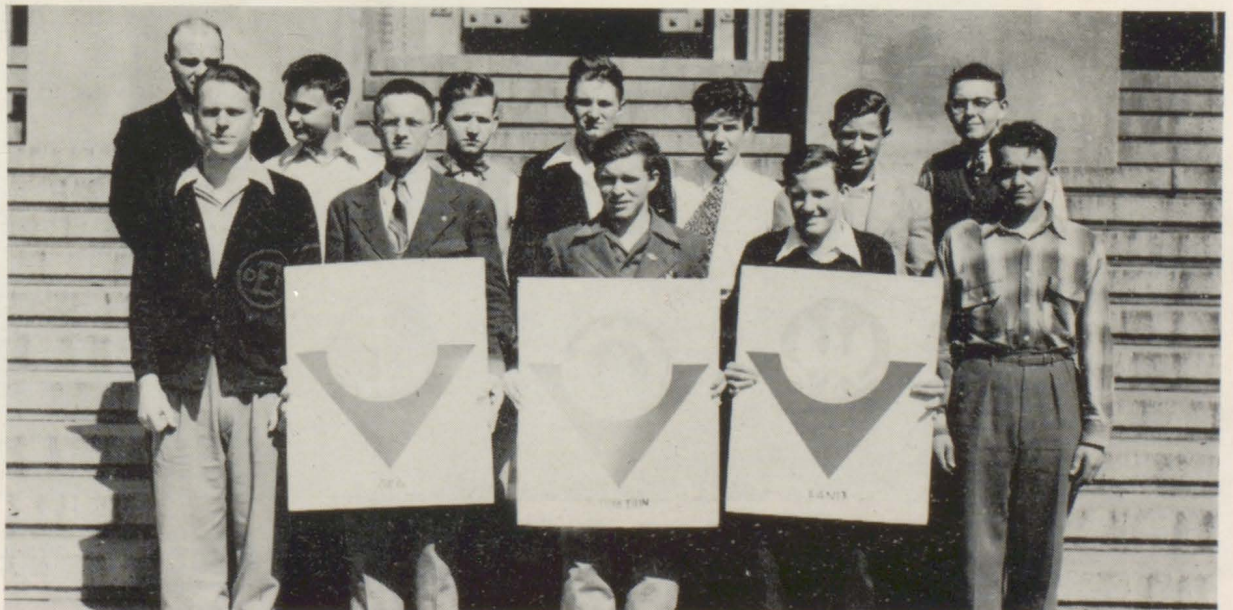

Production

The Production division of the Victory corps has been securing farm labor and publicizing Victory Gardens. The first faculty adviser of the organization, Mr. Ralph Collins, went to the Navy in the middle of the year; so Mr. W. L. Yount took over the duties of the adviser. In order to become a member of this division, one must be participating in a physical fitness program and in some study which leads toward a life in the field of industry or agriculture.

Community

The Community division of the Victory corps is one of the largest in the school, with almost one hundred members. The members of this division have been engaged in many important war aids. Many of the girls are nurses aids, some of whom are working in the Kenny cottage. Other members are taking care of children of war working mothers, helping in the home, and promoting Victory Gardens, bond and stamp drives, and salvage campaigns. Mr. D. O. Wilson is the adviser of the group.

Philomathean

Philimathean, one of the oldest and largest clubs in East High, was organized for girls who wish to study literary works of their own choice. All girls in East High school are eligible for membership in this club.

During previous semesters members have chosen for their subjects, famous American novels, play, short stories and foreign literature. This semester they are studying well-known American women in science literature and music.

The Philomathean club, whose colors are Purple and Gold, had a tea for the mothers and daughters the first Wednesday after Mother's Day. If the girls mothers were unable to attend the tea, the girls were permitted to bring someone else. An interesting program with good music highlighted the tea.

Zetageathean

The Zetageathean club is one of the oldest organizations of its kind in East High and was formerly a girls' literary club. In past years, try-outs were held to determine the eligibility of girls for membership. Now, however, it is a general interest group, open to all girls other than 10 B's.

The club, which meets the second and fourth Wednesday of each month, is under the capable direction of Miss Christine Smith. The officers for this semester are Gretchen Swanson, president; Irene Davidson, vice-president; Dorothy Parker, secretary; and Barbara Johnson, treasurer.

We have committees who plan the meetings. Some of the events have been a bingo party and a short play. We are looking forward to a tea during the month of May.

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club one of the essential clubs in school, especially this year. The club tries to train the members in the principle of firing. Most of the members know the nomenclature of the rifle.

The club is now under the capable leadership of Mr. C. G. Reed. Mr. S. A. Bakalyar, a captain in the United States Army, and Mr. A. G. Siverson, a major in the United States Army, were former sponsors of the club.

The members compete in prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing positions. They try to qualify for certain medals. The first rank is that of pro-marksman; second is marksman; third is marksman, first class; and fourth is sharpshooter.

After the member has qualified for sharpshooter, he may try to qualify for the nine bars to attached to the sharpshooter medal. After this, he may qualify for expert rifleman, then distinguished rifleman, which is the hardest medal to attain.

Special Interest Club

Special Interest is the largest club in the school with a membership of 39 girls and 6 boys. The officers are Douglas Bacon, president; Jack Hatchitt, vice-president; Pat Halligan, secretary; and Neil Smith, treasurer. The adviser is Mr. Yount, and the club meets in Room 216.

Some of the club's many activities are the annual breakfast, movies, picnics, field trips, and speakers. The most important of these are the picnic and the annual breakfast. At the breakfast, which is held in the third floor corridor, the members cook their own food.

This year the club took up the study of the Victory garden to do its share in the war effort. A moving picture on Victory gardening helped the members in this project.

This year the club kept up its outstanding record which has been established in past years.

Girl Reserves

"To face life squarely" and "To find and give the Best" are the mottos of the Girl Reserves. This year the Girl Reserves are working "Hand in hand" with the Victory corp.

Mrs. Munsell and Mrs. Ray Phillips are the advisors of this worthy club. The honor of being officers this year goes to, Patricia Mullahey, president; Betty Robinson, vice president; and secretary, and Arlene Henderson, Inter-club council member.

El Circulo Espanol

The Spanish Club was organized for students who are taking or have taken Spanish. Although the members do not speak Spanish at the meetings, they play Spanish games and sing Spanish songs.

There are thirty members in the club this year. This year's officers are Ellen Augustine, president; Bonnie Casady, vice president; Sarah Koontz, secretary; and Charlotte Musin, treasurer.

Miss Frances Brewer and Miss Christine Balliet are the sponsors of the club.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y is an organization to teach boys clean speech, clean sports, and clean living. The boys meet at the Y. M. C. A. every Wednesday night at 8:00 p. m.

Most of the programs this year had to do with the war. A marine recruiting officer, a sailor who had been in the African invasion, and a gunner of a bomber crew were among the many speakers. The boys visited the county jail.

Mr. Fred Pennington is the new adviser this year.

Sodalitas Romana

The Sodalitas Romana or Latin Club is a club for students who are taking Latin or have taken at least one year of the language.

The main feature of the club's semester program was the Roman banquet. The banquet was to celebrate a Roman wedding, and a bride and groom were elected.

The officers are Marie Smith, counsel; Marjorie Shackelford, pro-counsel; Marion Andrews, scribe; Helen Jones, quaestor; and Frederick Write, janitor. Miss Winifrid Cummings is the sponsor of the club.

"E" Men's Club

This is a new club at East. Organized by Jim Fischer, Kenneth Drescher, Jim Williams, Dick Rider, Vernon Winfrey, and Bill Breman, it is the first of its kind here. The boys chose Mr. L. R. Brainard as their director. The officers were chosen from the first members: Williams, president; Fischer, vice president; Rider, secretary; and Terrell, treasurer.

The constitution was written and approved by the six organizers. The idea originated from the "letter clubs" of other schools. All members must have good grades and be athletes with at least 200 points. Members who graduate remain on the rolls as alumni members.

Sub Deb Club

The Sub Deb is under the direction of Miss Ruth Mixa. This is one of the most popular clubs around the school, and many of our prominent students are members.

The officers are: president, Elizabeth Holden; vice president, Mary Louise Wald; secretary, Nancy Allen; treasurer, Frances Van Liew.

There are about sixty members this semester. The activities include talks by prominent Des Moines citizens. They plan a Sub Deb dance.

They serve some sort of refreshments during each meeting and have intelligent discussions on home life. A picnic and hike have been planned for their final meeting this spring.

Horizon Club

Following the program of the American Indian, the Horizon club members go hiking, or picnicking and camping at the Camp Fire Girls' camp, "Camp Hantesa". The club, advised by Mrs. E. A. McKercker, meets every Wednesday in Room 120. Mary Lou McKercker, president; Darlene Epps, treasurer; Mary Martha Hansen, secretary; and Beth Heggen, reporter; are the officers of the club this year.

Helping the patients at Kenny cottage with handcraft is the main project of the club this semester. The very appropriate motto of this wonderful organization is "Give Service".

Row 1: Grimes, Nahas, Ostrand, Nelson, McPherson; Row 2: Shackelford, Clow, Rowat, Wilson, Benshoof, Stakey.

First Aid and Nutrition

First Aid under the direction of Mr. Oliver from the American Red Cross meets two hours after school each Tuesday evening. This is one of the most important courses offered under the civilian defense program. At the conclusion of this twenty hour course, those who pass a final examination will be awarded First Aid certificates.

The Nutrition class is conducted by Mrs. William Prouty, Jr. This class is especially important during the war since we need to get every bit of nourishment from our food. This group also meets every Tuesday evening.

Fellowship Group

The Fellowship group meets each day during the lunch hour in Room 121 to discuss religious problems. They read and study the Bible, have memory verses, and guest speakers. The speakers are ministers from the different religious sects, since the group is interdenominational. They also sing choruses. Each week a student leader is chosen to plan the week's meetings. Miss Agnes Helmreich has been kind enough to sponsor the group.

SPORTS

Track Team . . .

Track is one of East High School's strong sports. Whenever track meets of championship teams are held, East High School is there, and the other schools realize the fact. These boys are tops in these fields, and they have never had a bad season.

Directed and trained by East High's prize coach, "Mike" Augustine, the boys have amassed a grand reputation and dozens of trophies.

The boys start running in early spring so as to be in top physical condition when the first meet is held. Medals are won by the individuals, and trophies are won for the school.

Track is one sport in which the boys must always be in the best of condition. Bolstered by the return of twelve lettermen, our squad will compete against the top teams in Iowa. Our schedule this year will include the city indoor and outdoor meets, Valley, Drake, District, State, and "Big 7" meets.

Basketball Team . . .

Bombardiers

Our basketball team hit its peak this semester when it brought home the city championship. Starting in the fall, the boys worked hard and led the city all the way through the season.

East High suffered heavily by mid-semester graduation but held their lead to win. Graduating in January were Captain Lonnie Howard, Vince Filliman, Ed Palmer, and Bob Wright, four of the five regulars.

This put a load on the reserves' shoulders which they carried well. Filling the seniors' places were Captain Bob Reeves, Neil Smith, Marvin Williams, Jim McLeran, and Ralph Rook. These boys were expected to give a good account of themselves, and they did.

Besides the city meet, the team won its way to the quarter-finals of the districts before dropping a very close game to North.

Coached by "Mike" Augustine, our boys put in long hours of practice every night in the gym. Teamwork is essential to a good team, and East's team developed into a good fast-moving unit. This year our team contained many natural athletes, many of whom will return for further competition next fall. Captain Bob Reeves will be lost by graduation in June.

First class competition was at hand this season and East High played the best teams, including the state champions, Mason City. Further honors were gained when Jim McLeran was named as all-city guard. Jim has two years of competition left.

All our credit and support should be given to Coach Augustine and to the team for the grand season they turned in. Nice work, team, you have made us proud of you.

Gunner's Mates

Working in the limelight of the first team, the second squad propose themselves today for the first team of tomorrow. East High's second team this year shows great promise of future championships. It takes an exceptionally good basketball team to play all opponents and end the season with only one defeat. Our second squad this year not only won seventeen games while losing only one, but they won their city championship in addition.

Coached by "Mike" Augustine, the squad worked hard, long hours to perfect their shots, floor tactics, and teamwork. A smooth, swift moving unit, the squad makes us feel sure that next season the school will be in top basketball circles. Good coaching, loyal support, and hard practice have netted a very successful season. Nice work, team, we expect to hear of a brilliant season again next year.

Tennis Team . . .

1. Cohen; 2. Hearshman, Barman; 3. Swanson, Bacon; 4. Lamb-Captain, K. Ried; 5. Fraley.

Air Patrol

With a strong field of prospective sophomores and the return of three lettermen and four regulars from last season, East High is looking forward to a championship tennis team in 1943.

Returning this year to help the team are Captain George Lamb, Bill Hearshman, and Dick Swanson, lettermen, and Douglas Bacon, Paul Wildrick, and "Windy" Vermeulen. The team was given another boost by the presence of Dick Schneider, city boys' singles champion.

Inspired by last year's district champions, the boys intend to make themselves and East High School well known in the "lob and volley" circles by the end of the season.

Working under the handicap of material shortage and the uncertainty of a new coach, the boys will have to work exceptionally hard, but from an East High team we expect and predict a good season.

Our new coach, Mr. Whitlock, is doing a grand job of filling the place of our old coach, Mr. S. A. Bakalyar, who is now serving as a captain in the United States Army. Although in a new and difficult position, Coach Whitlock has won the respect of all the team by his helpful and efficient work in their behalf.

Our team will play a strong schedule of opponents, including Lincoln, Roosevelt, North, and the city tournament. Arrangements are also being made for out-of-town meets.

Last year East High won their first major tennis trophy, and we expect this year to have the feat repeated.

Tennis is an easy game to watch but a very hard game to play. Many things are required to produce a good tennis player, such as stamina, accuracy, and steadiness under pressure. East High's players deserve your support.

Wrestling Team . . .

Commandos

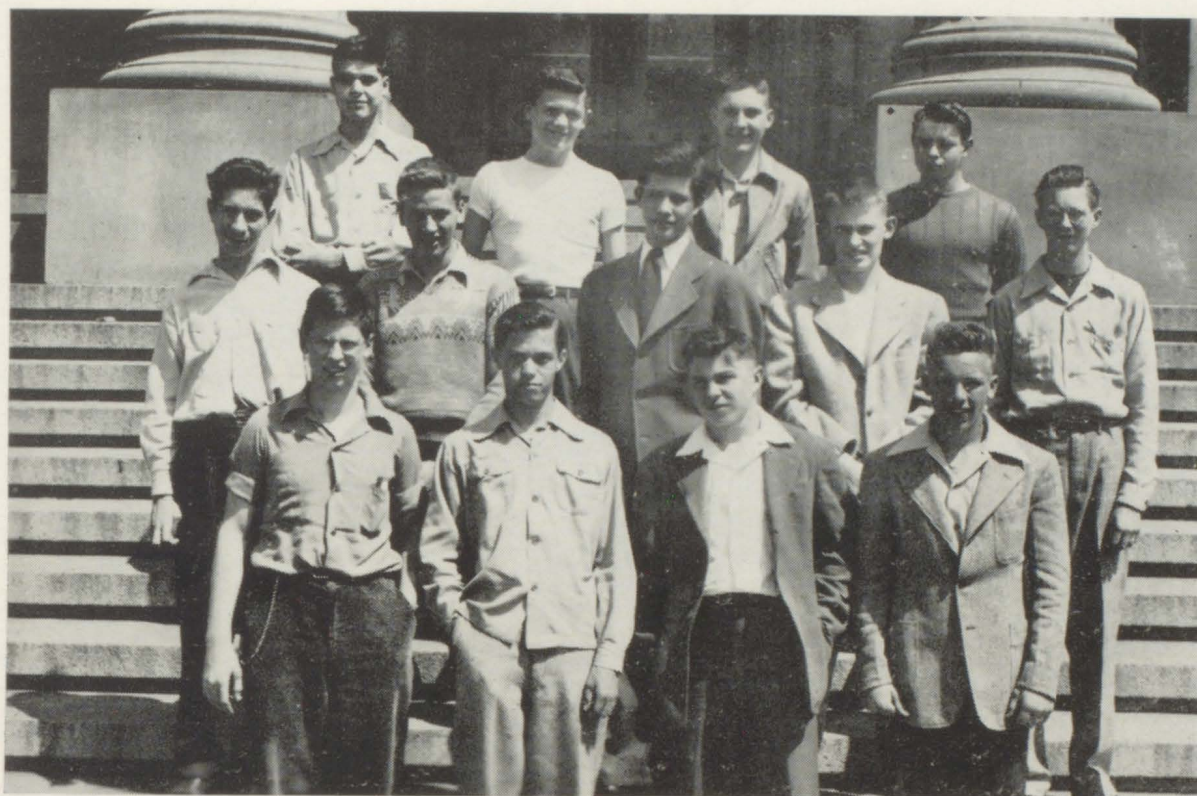

The East High wrestlers had a good season this year. As you probably know, the wrestlers start training during football season and keep in form and condition through the season. Naturally, the wrestling team like any other mid-term team loses some of their best wrestlers through graduation. This year, however, the team wasn't too hampered by the loss. On the whole, the boys worked hard all year and at the end of the season showed great improvement. As you are no doubt aware, wrestling is a sport which deals with the leverage and weight advantages of one body against another. Generally it takes the new wrestlers at least half the season to learn the holds which will enable them to win their matches. The point system for wrestling varies from football and basketball because it depends on the wrestler's ability.

This year Coach "Chuck" Gregory was pleased to have around fifty boys who came out every night and worked on holds and so forth. However, not everyone can wrestle first team matches, and so Mr. Gregory and the other city coaches arranged second team matches for these fellows.

This year's first team really came on like "Buster's Gang". The team won every dual meet against city competition and came in second in the city, losing to North by two points. Sonny Holsinger won third in the district meet. This year's letter winners were Rider, Vermeulen, Surber, Olsen. Two ring letters went to Howard, Drescher and Pike. One three ring letter went to Mackin.

Swimming Team . . .

Hampered by the sickness of our coach, "Scotty" Russell, and by some of our athletes' working outside of school, our swimming team started rather slowly this year, but around the middle of the season East High's tank men were giving good accounts of themselves in every meet. On completing a very hard season, Coach Russell expressed satisfaction in the work of his team.

Strengthened by the return of Norlan Champ, Harold Taylor, and Gene Downey, our team was helped along by the development of many good sophomore swimmers. Particularly outstanding was underclassman, Keith Garr, who is not only excellent swimmer, but a versatile one. Great things are predicted and expected from the boys who will return for competition next semester.

Hampered by the graduation of Captain Roger Smith, and other senior lettermen, the team had a mid-semester setback, which they overcame in grand style.

Marine Corps

East High School paddlers swam against Roosevelt, Lincoln, and North this year, besides competing in the city meet. A fine showing was made in every meet.

In Mr. Russell, East High School has a coach who is a national figure in swimming circles. Thoroughly capable and efficient, Coach Russell is the inspiration and backbone of our mermen.

Requiring excellent physical condition and good reflexes, swimming is one of our cleanest, most wholesome sports. A sport that may someday save the lives of its contestants.

Prospects for next year's squad appear to be very good with five lettermen returning to compete. More good sophomores will be on hand to fill out the team and help it along to victory. Good luck to you again next year.

Golf Team . . .

Field Artillery

When the final story is written on golf in 1943, you may be sure East High will be represented. Coach A. G. Hostetter has trained his boys capably and well for the stiff competition they must face. The boys have responded well and have worked hard until they are now one of the top teams in the state.

Captain Bob Frey is a golf player, who, even now excels many men and Bob is improving everyday. Jack Strait and Neil Smith are also tough opponents in any match. To back up these three lettermen are a host of last years regulars and prospective sophomores.

Golf, like tennis, is a game at which the individual must work alone and depend entirely on his own skill. This makes it doubly hard for a player to compete.

Our golf team has a tough schedule this year. They will compete against Lincoln, Roosevelt, and North as well as playing in the city, district, and state meets. Coach Hostetter has also received invitations from many out-of-town schools for meets with East High's squad.

Starting early in the spring, the team gets into shape by practising their stance, form, swing, and timing. Long hard hours are spent by everyone in training himself for the coming season. It requires lots of cross-country walking and many hills to be climbed.

The team may be hampered by a lack of golf balls because of the war, they are confident that they can take the balls they get and turn them into use in a championship season. Golfers, we expect the state trophy.

Long Distance Flyers . . .

In the fall and spring a few of our track men compete in obstacle races called cross-country meets. Being a strong track school, East High has never failed to make an excellent showing in this field.

Present holders of the state championship, East High is expected to repeat her records next semester.

Particular praise should be given to our state individual champion, Martin Grandquist, who with Bill Chappell, Bill West, Vance Walters, and Maynard Boatwright, won the state two-mile and one-mile, city two-mile and state A.A.U. two-mile races.

Here's to the boys who worked hard for their honors. The boys work alone and quietly with no support or cheers from their fellow students, but they are champions.

. . . Quartermaster Corps

They hand out the soap and towels long after the students have gone home. The "Cage Monkey", or student manger, works long and hard to see that East High's athletic teams are equipped and well taken care of.

Each year a new 10B is added to the three managers, replacing the members who graduate. Our managers this year are Norlan Champ, senior, Eddie Evans, and Bob Mackie. Norlan is the graduating member this year.

Each boy is required to serve for three years, on completion of which he is presented with a three-ring monogram.

Dressed in old clothes, these boys spend two or three hours nightly in the shower rooms looking after the needs of our athletes. Not satisfied with helping athletes, the managers themselves find time to win monograms in various sports for themselves.

Under the direction of Mr. Glen Whitlock, our physical instructor, these boys have a long hard job, but they enjoy helping and are always joking or playing tricks on each other. Hats off to the boys behind our teams.

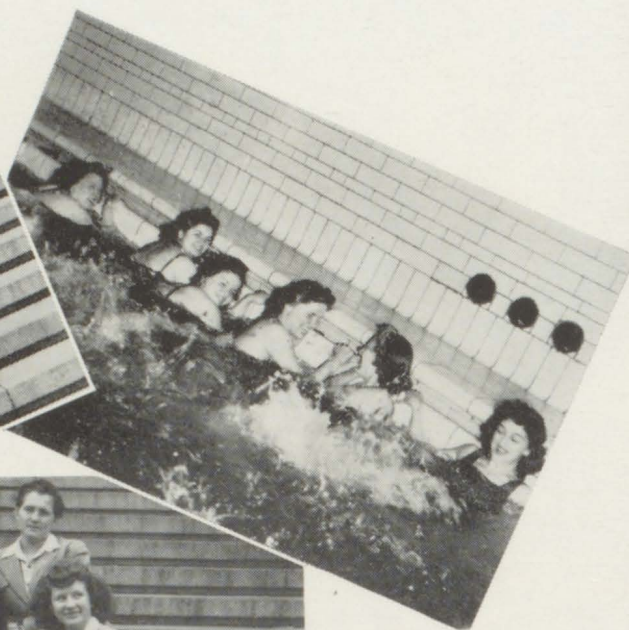

Front: Norlan Champ, Captain; Row 2: Mackie, Evans; Back: Wagner.

G. A. A.

Row 1: Helen Stnafield, Betty Story, Catherine Appell, Joan Cowen; Row 2: Maxine Lewis, Phyllis Franklin, Patty Van Liew, Norma McPherson, Gloria Codner.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic association gives the girls a splendid opportunity to participate in many sports. All girls are eligible, and they have a grand time. Miss Helen Spencer, instructor for girls' physical education, also supervises and sponsors the G. A. A. The officers this year are as follows: JoAnn Viggers, president; Sally Terrell, vice-president; Dorothy Tucker, secretary; and Mabel Harban, publicity secretary.

The girls are encouraged to come out for sports by the possibility of earning monograms which are awarded for athletic achievement in different sports. The monograms are awarded on the point system, 300 points being needed for a numeral, 500 for one ring, 1,000 for two rings, and 1,500 for three rings. The girls must earn their points by participating in several sports. Some of the sports in which girls earn points are skating, hiking, bicycling, tennis, swimming, tumbling, basketball, and baseball. All of these give the girls points as well as affording them fun and exercise. These sports also develop in the girls sportsmanship, skill, and a sense of fair play.

The East High girls' tennis team is composed of a group of hard-working girls who go out on the courts and practice every night, if it is at all possible. The team enters into competition with other high schools, and also the city and state meets. Miss Helen Spencer has been chosen as the girls' tennis coach. She teaches form, stride, accuracy, and steadiness. Besides all this, she schedules matches and numerous other things. These girls are out there pitching for dear East High, so they have a lot of support behind them.

Swimming is another sport which many of the girls enjoy immensely. Mr. A. Y. Russell, more commonly known as "Scotty", is our able and willing instructor. "Scotty" has several classes of girls who are learning the fundamental principles of swimming. They practice diving and life-saving. This is a sport in which the arm and leg muscles can be developed. With a little work, the girls can build up their speed, wind, and endurance. On Friday afternoon, there is what is known as recreational swimming. The girls earn points for their G. A. A. monograms by going into the pool and splashing around.

Here at East High, we seem to have a large number of very good tumblers. If anyone wants to learn anything about tumbling, just go over to the gym and get in on the fun.

On Tuesday and Friday afternoons, the girls go over to the gym and play basketball. They learn the essentials of the game, as well as have fun and wholesome exercise. Those who show the most initiative are picked as captains, and they choose sides and play tournaments. The girls also earn points in this sport.

In the spring when the weather warms up, the girls go outside and play baseball which they enjoy very much.

Another of the activities in the gym is that of the girls' gym monitors. They seldom get any credit or glory. Miss Spencer selects them according to their grades and service ability. The girls check attendance, run errands, and do the clerical work for Miss Spencer. They also work in the "cage", checking baskets in and out, and they keep a record of the equipment that goes out. They also see to it that unauthorized persons are kept out of the gym.

Little Willie, exhibiting his skill in riding a new bicycle, came down the street in front of his home. "Look, mama!" he cried, folding his arms—"No hands!" Again he came in view, this time coasting with his feet off the pedals. "Look, mama! No feet!" Half an hour elapsed and little Willie again put in his appearance. This time, somewhat subdued he gurgled: "Look, mama! No teeth!"
